

Role Outline

Effective report writing and creation of strategies to support the LK2 team to realise development opportunities across the LK2 group of companies.

To support the LK2 team to review, develop and implement the company sport and leisure strategy.

To support the LK2 team with business plans, scoping studies, justification of need reports and submitting grant aid applications.

Key Attributes

- Working closely with our internal and external consultant teams.
- Excellent presentational and interpersonal skills.
- The ability to engage with key stakeholders and decision makers.
- Proven track record in bid and report writing and policy development.
- Understand and interpret strategies – advise and implement practical solutions for delivery.

- Data analysis and research insight interpretation.
- Work closely with in-house consultants – architects, developers, project managers and cost consultants.
- A clear understanding of sustainable management and operational structures.
- Ability to work across the UK.
- Demonstrable track record within the key sectors.

LK2 offers the opportunity to be part of a market leading and cutting-edge company.

